

ECISO HELD IT'S 2ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

June 20 2018, Brussels

The European Cyber Security Organisation (ECISO) held its 11th Board of Directors meeting expanding its membership base. The day continued with the Association's 2nd General Assembly to elect new members to its governing bodies.

ECISO is proud to welcome 8 new cybersecurity organizations as new members of the Association. The Board of Directors approved the candidacies of :

- CyCSO – Cyprus Cybersecurity Organization, Cyprus
- eMAZE Networks, Italy
- Hermes Bay, Italy
- ICITA – International Cyber Investigation Training Academy, Bulgaria
- Prisma, Italy
- RISE SICS, Sweden
- TÜVIT – TÜV Informationstechnik - Member of TÜV NORD GROUP, Germany
- ZHAW InIT – Zurich University of Applied Sciences Institute of Applied Information Technology, Switzerland

The 11th Board of Directors of ECISO was promptly followed by the Association's 2nd Annual General Assembly during which new members to the Board of Directors of ECISO and new representatives to the ECISO-cPPP Partnership Board were appointed.

The new members of ECISO governing bodies are international cybersecurity experts originating from both private and public sectors across Europe.

The Board of Directors of ECISO oversees the implementation of the organisation's strategy and overall performance. 18 newly appointed members of the Board of Directors are joining efforts to support European Commission in implementing the first European public-private partnership on cybersecurity:

- Annie Audic, Conseil Régional de Bretagne
- Benoit Poletti, INCERT GIE, Luxembourg
- Carlos Pietro-Saiz, AEI CIBERSEGURIDAD, Spain
- Eva Schulz-Kamm, SIEMENS, Germany
- Géraud Canet, Commissariat à l'Energie Atomique et aux Energies Alternatives (CEA), France
- Giorgio Cusmà, INTESA SAN PAOLO, Italy
- Juha Remes, Finnish Information Security Cluster (FISC), Finland
- Kai Rannenber, Goethe-Universität Frankfurt, Germany
- Karol Okonski, Ministry of Digital Affairs, Poland
- Katharina-Irene Bointner, Federal Chancellery of Austria (BKA)
- Mark Miller, CONCEPTIVITY, Switzerland
- Miguel Angel Juan, S2GRUPO, Spain
- Olivier Ligneul, Electricité de France (EDF), France
- Rita Forsi, Ministry of Economic Development, Italy
- Samu Konttinen, F-Secure Corporation, Finland
- Stéfane Mouille, EUROSMART, Belgium
- Walter Matta, Vitrociset, Italy
- Wolfgang Steinbauer, NXP Semiconductors, the Netherlands

A new ECSO-cPPP Partnership Board, which serves as a formal communication channel between the European Commission and ECSO has been elected as well. 24 newly appointed representatives will be working to ensure an open dialogue and discussion on the implementation of the EU's cybersecurity strategy:

- Simon Bradley, AIRBUS Group, Germany
- Sylvain Langlois, Electricité de France (EDF), France
- Giorgio Cusmà, INTESA SAN PAOLO, Italy
- Miguel Angel Juan, S2GRUPO, Spain
- Thomas Stubbings, RadarServices Smart IT-Security GmbH (TSMC), Austria
- Mark Miller, CONCEPTIVITY, Switzerland
- Andrea Chiappetta, ASPISEC, Italy
- Kimmo Halunen, VTT, Finland
- Ana Ayerbe Fernandez-Cuesta, TECNALIA, Spain
- Hervé Debar, Institut Mines-Télécom (IMT), France
- Kai Rannenber, Goethe-Universität Frankfurt, Germany
- Evangelos Markatos, Foundation for Research and Technology – Hellas (FORTH), Greece
- Fabio Martinelli, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche (CNR), Italy
- Francisco Javier Diéguez Barriocanal, Sociedad para la Transformación Competitiva (SPRI), Spain
- Jacques Olaf Kruse Brandao, NXP Semiconductors Netherlands, the Netherlands
- Emmanuel Ventadour, Infineon Technologies, Germany
- Mats Nillson, Ericsson, Sweden
- Samu Konttinen, F-Secure Corporation, Finland
- Pedro Soria, ATOS, Spain
- Timo Kotilainen, Finnish Information Security Cluster (FISC), Finland
- Stéfane Mouille, EUROSMART, Belgium
- Emmanuel Dotaro, European Organisation for Security (EOS), Belgium
- Carlos Prieto-Saiz, AEI CIBERSEGURIDAD, Spain

ECSO currently unites 239 members from 28 European countries. Its strength lies in its ability to provide a space for a stimulating discussion on cybersecurity challenges and to enable pan-European dialogue between different sectors, ranging from cyber industry to research centers and universities, to governmental bodies.

About ECSO

The European Cyber Security Organisation (ECSO) ASBL is a fully self-financed non-for-profit organisation under the Belgian law, established in June 2016. ECSO represents the contractual counterpart to the European Commission for the implementation of the Cyber Security contractual Public-Private Partnership (cPPP). ECSO members include a wide variety of stakeholders such as large companies, SMEs and Start-ups, research centres, universities, clusters and association as well as European Member State's local, regional and national administrations, countries part of the European Economic Area (EEA) and the European Free Trade Association (EFTA) and H2020 associated countries.